

Park Court Complaints Policy

At Park Court our patients are our utmost priority and treating them with fairness, dignity and compassion. We want each and everyone of our patients to have the very best of experiences, however we will always take any complaints regarding any aspect of our service, member of staff or any treatment outcome seriously. You can make a complaint either verbally to a member of staff, by telephone or email. Once we have received your complaint we will look into the matter and how we will be addressing it within 14 days. We will endeavour to resolve the situation as soon as we can
